Committee on Staff Concerns

Chair: Emily Redd

- Met in late July to discuss policies for comment and other received concerns:
 - Custodian minimum wage increase:
 - Staff Senate will talk about more ways to reward loyalty and longevity, and will try to reach this EEOC more effectively, Emily replied 7/19
 - Brittany Lewis, general concern about temp remote work policy:
 - Emily replied 7/19 and let her know that we are inquiring about a timeline for the new permanent policy: (Kathi Horne volunteered to ask about this)
 - Child care for staff concern:
 - Staff Senate can take a look at the current policy at ETSU and also look at other institutions to work toward a suggestion for ETSU administration
 - Building occupancy concern:
 - Don McCarty volunteered to ask if this is true
 - Admin/office custodians are short staffed vs. housing custodians:
 - Don McCarty volunteered to ask about this
 - Concern regarding Sick Bank:
 - Emily forwarded 7/19 all info to Joy Fulkerson for further inquiry
