Notes:

The TN eCampus Program offerings were fully terminated at ETSU with a phase-out and termination date of May 2021 to August 2021.
The (TN eCampus) word designation was written beside a program name in this table to help distinguish TN eCampus degree programs [college RP, department RODP].
The TN eCampus graduate degree programs had the RP graduate degrees awarded through ETSU departments of Cross-Disciplinary Studies (CDST), Curriculum and Instruction (CUAI), and Nursing - Graduate (NURG) rather than the ROCS, ROED, and RONU departments assigned to the RP college.

The academic programs represent the THEC approved (active and phase-out) programs with two exceptions which are:

- (1) internal programs established at ETSU for tracking and/or advising students [ * asterisk beside name] and
- (2) previously inactivated/consolidated/terminated programs having students enrolled in them when census data are captured and submitted in enrollment reports to the THEC.

Enrollment in academic program concentrations are included only for the most current fall. The concentrations shown are the active concentrations and terminated concentrations having enrollments as of census reporting. The concentration names are spelled according to the Banner naming convention and do not necessarily reflect the official name listed on the THEC academic program inventory.

Data Key used in Fact Books prior to 2017 was: e=effective; i=inactive; m=moved to or from department; no=new/old code used; r=renamed; t=terminated; to=terminated/phase-out. See heading for current program status keys. The program status key of 'ea' for 'effective anew' represents an academic program and/or a program code reinstated from a previously terminated or inactive program.

The program status key of 'ea' for effective anew represents an academic program and/or major/program code(s) reinstated from a previously terminated or in-active status.

Graduate degree programs in the Regents On-Line Degree Program - RODP, renamed TN eCampus, are coded in Banner in the Cross-Disciplinary Studies (CDST), Curriculum and Instruction (CUAI), and Nursing - Graduate (NURG) departments rather than the TN eCampus departments (ROCS, ROED, and RONU).
