ARTA 4957-S01 Special Topics Course "Art in Practice" Course Description: this course is a three week intensive professional development class for artist and designer. Have you ever wonder what to do after school. How to apply to an open call exhibition, a job posting in the art or a residency? What do you need to have in your application package? This is what this class will cover. We will look at how to find opportunities. We will prepare a selection of your work, website, work on cover letters, cv and project proposal. You will complete one application by the end of the class. If you are thinking about taking it, you can start looking at residencies and open call that you would like to apply to. If you have any questions donâ€™t hesitate to contact me by email. mayoraz@etsu.edu

CSCI 1100 is a required proficiency for all Freshmen students. A proficiency exam or CSCI 1100 must be taken before you will be allowed to register as a sophomore. This course does not count as a UIT intensive course. A portion of this course will be taught using ETSUâ€™s distance education system. Students are required to attend class each week. Please contact the UIT office at burke@etsu.edu or 439-6970 for more information.

CSCI 4910â€“ SC1 Selected Topics â€“ Intro to C# & ASP.NET â€“ Prerequisites: 2210 or 2910. This course introduces the C# (C-Sharp) language in a context of developing Web Applications and Web Services. The course will cover building web applications in C# with topics such as the web application execution model, server-side vs. client side code execution, web forms, data binding, master pages, themes, and skins, database-driven web applications, LINQ technology, authentication and authorization, and AJAX. No previous experience with C# is required, but a student should have the equivalent of a one-year programming course using an object-oriented programming language such as Java or C++. Please contact Dr. Don Bailes for more information. (439-6958 or bailes@etsu.edu)

Note HIST 4957/5957-S01 - This course is designed to offer a brief yet encompassing overview of some of these key patterns of change throughout the land we call Scotland as well as in the lives, habitations and wars of the Picts, Celts, Scots, Angles and Britons within those lands and over migrations from the Highlands to regions not far from where we are at the moment. Moving chronologically, we will cover swaths of history focusing on the stories of the people and their lands. Scotland's central role in Enlightenment thought and contributions to the development of many modern academic disciplines and technologies will not be overlooked.

This Comparative CJ: Study Abroad class is going to LONDON. The purpose of this course is to offer students a look at how criminal justice is practiced around the world. The course compares and contrasts the criminal justice system in the United States with justice systems in one selected country. Additionally, the class will briefly introduce crime as a global problem through analysis of transnational and international crime issues. Students will apply comparative methods to analyze criminal justice systems of the select country with the United States and explore an international perspective in policing, courts, and corrections.
