Note: The professor invites students to contact him silver@etsu.edu to be granted access to the first module (from last summers course). This will allow you to sample the narrated PPTs and coordinated materials. He will also provide a copy of last year's syllabus upon request. This year's will be available a few days before the beginning of Winter Term. ENVH 3040 W01 is being taught in a very highly accelerated format in winter term. A minimum of two modules will be covered each week. A module includes readings, discussion forum, study questions, and a quiz. (The format used in other semesters has typically been one module per week). Students should not take this course if they have more than one outside commitment such as: another course; a job; family care duties; etc. Vacation travel is ill-advised. No deadlines will fall on Christmas Day or New Years Day. However, deadlines may occur in the early afternoons on the respective "eves" of the holidays (i.e., 12/24 and 12/31).

SPCH 2320-W01 functions as a hybrid course. What that means is that the first three and a half weeks of the course will take place online, and the last week of the course will take place live. For the first three and a half weeks, students can complete assignments, speeches, and lectures online, from anywhere they may be during the winter break. The last week of class will take place back on ETSU's main campus, MTWRF 10:00-12:00 in Rogers-Stout 125. During this last week, students will work together to complete a final group debate assignment. Students who register for this class should have the ability to be back on campus to complete the course from January 9-13.
