I. Call to Order

President David Finney called the meeting to order at 1:02 p.m.

II. Updates for Senators

1. In the President's Report, President Finney noted the Staff Celebration and that offices would close between noon and 2:30 p.m., as well as that award nominations would continue through April 22. President Finney welcomed questions about the award categories. He noted that food would come from Firehouse BBQ and encouraged all senators to participate in the Staff Celebration. President Finney noted that concerns still exist about parking costs. He also said that Voyager would still go live on July 1. President Finney also said that he would ask someone from Human Resources to speak to the senate, including on the one-time bonus of $500.
2. Other updates: Senator Katie Sellers (Staff Concerns Committee) noted that there remain concerns about parking increases. Senator Suzy Hooven (Visibility Committee) said she had attended an SGA meeting in the hopes of building bridges. Liz Thomas-Joseph (Election Committee) noted that there will be an election in August.

III. Treasurer's Report

1. Treasurer Caughran gave a report on current financials.

IV. Adjournment: Senator Stefanie Murphy made the motion to adjourn and it was seconded by Senator Candy Massey.
