This is a reference question. I am not sure whether there is anything in the Virgil Wacks Collection or not.

Hello. My name is Stacy Horn and I'm writing a book for HarperCollins about the former Duke Parapsychology Laboratory. In 1938, the director of the lab, J. B. Rhine, was told the stories of Bertha Sybert aka Bouncing Bertha, and I'm trying to research Bertha's story. Can you help me? I see that Virgil Wacks was involved with her somehow and wrote about her -- are there any records about her in the Virgil Q. Wacks Collection?

Thank you either way for your time!

Stacy
